

Public Notification of the National School Lunch Program

Center City Public Charter Schools participates in the National School Lunch Program (NSLP), Seamless Summer Option (SSO), Afterschool snack, and School Breakfast Program (SBP) and adheres to the guidelines established by the USDA. Each school year, Center City Public Charter Schools provides breakfast and lunch at no cost as part of our Community Eligibility Provision (CEP) status at all six Center City schools. You can find monthly school menus by reading your monthly campus newsletter. All meals are prepared by Revolution Foods.

It's critical that students begin each day with a nutritious breakfast to prepare them for a successful school day.

USDA Non-Discrimination Statement

In accordance with federal civil rights law and U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) civil rights regulations and policies, this institution is prohibited from discriminating on the basis of race, color, national origin, sex (including gender identity and sexual orientation), disability, age, or reprisal or retaliation for prior civil rights activity.

Program information may be made available in languages other than English. Persons with disabilities who require alternative means of communication to obtain program information (e.g., Braille, large print, audiotape, American Sign Language), should contact the responsible State or local Agency that administers the program or USDA's TARGET Center at (202) 720-2600 (voice and TTY) or contact USDA through the Federal Relay Service at (800) 877-8339

To file a program discrimination complaint, a Complainant should complete a Form AD-3027, USDA Program Discrimination Complaint Form which can be obtained online at: <https://www.usda.gov/sites/default/files/documents/USDA-OASCR%20P-Complaint-Form-050800-02-508-11-28-17Fax2Mail.pdf>, from any USDA office, by calling (866) 632-9992, or by writing a letter addressed to USDA. The letter must contain the complainant's name, address, telephone number, and a written description of the alleged discriminatory action in sufficient detail to inform the Assistant Secretary for Civil Rights (ASCR) about the nature and date of an alleged civil rights violation. The completed AD-3027 form or letter must be submitted to USDA by:

- (1) mail:
U.S. Department of Agriculture
Office of the Assistant Secretary for Civil Rights
1400 Independence Avenue SW
Washington, DC 20250-9410; or
- (2) fax:

- (833) 256-1665 or (202) 690-7442; or
(3) email: program.intake@usda.gov

This institution is an equal opportunity provider.

Also, the District of Columbia Human Rights Act, approved December 13, 1977 (DC law 2-38; DC official code §2-1402.11(2006), as amended) states the following:

It shall be an unlawful discriminatory practice to do any of the following acts, wholly or partially for a discriminatory reason based upon the actual or perceived: race, color, religion, national origin, sex, age, marital status, personal appearance, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, family responsibilities, genetic information, disability, matriculation, or political affiliation of any individual. To file a complaint alleging discrimination on one of these bases, please contact the District of Columbia's Office of Human Rights at (202) 727-4559 or ohr@dc.gov.

For Residential Child Care Institutions only:

Residential child care institutions which are not licensed to accept individuals with certain kinds of disabilities and therefore, feel they are unable to make this statement, may add the following phrase as clarification:

This institution is primarily a special agency for (state the services that you provide) and geared only to take care of those types of conditions. Individuals with other disabilities will be referred to another institution with appropriate services.
