Public Notification of the National School Lunch Program

Center City Public Charter Schools participates in the National School Lunch Program (NSLP) to provide free snacks to our student community and Seamless Summer Option (SSO) to provide free breakfast and lunch, and adheres to the guidelines established by the USDA. Each school year, Center City Public Charter Schools provides breakfast, lunch, and snack at no cost under the Community Eligibility Program (CEP). You can find monthly school menus by clicking here, http://preferredmealsmenu.com

Center City has an obligation to continue to provide meals to our students who have qualified for a medical exemption. These students will be offered 5-day meal kits. Each Center City campus will designate and communie a 2-3 hour window everyday for parents to pick up free breakfast and lunch meals. Each campus will place 6ft. Markers outside the building to ensure social distancing during pickup. Weather permitting, pickup will take place outside. In the event of inclement weather, families will proceed one-at-a-time to the front desk to pick up their meals. Meals will be provided free of charge under SSO and/or NSLP.

It's critical that students begin each day with a nutritious breakfast to prepare them for a successful school day.

USDA Non-Discrimination Statement

In accordance with Federal civil rights law and U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) civil rights regulations and policies, the USDA, its Agencies, offices, and employees, and institutions participating in or administering USDA programs are prohibited from discriminating based on race, color, national origin, religion, sex, disability, age, marital status, family/parental status, income derived from a public assistance program, political beliefs, or reprisal or retaliation for prior civil rights activity, in any program or activity conducted or funded by USDA (not all bases apply to all programs). Remedies and complaint filing deadlines vary by program or incident.

Persons with disabilities who require alternative means of communication for program information (e.g., Braille, large print, audiotape, American Sign Language, etc.) should contact the State or local Agency that administers the program or contact USDA through the Telecommunications Relay Service at 711 (voice and TTY). Additionally, program information may be made available in languages other than English.

To file a program discrimination complaint, complete the USDA Program Discrimination Complaint Form, AD-3027, found online at How to File a Program Discrimination Complaint and at any USDA office or write a letter addressed to USDA and provide in the letter all of the information requested in the form. To request a copy of the complaint form, call (866) 632-9992. Submit your completed form or letter to USDA by: (1) mail: U.S. Department of Agriculture, Office of the Assistant Secretary for Civil Rights, 1400 Independence Avenue, SW, Mail Stop 9410, Washington, D.C. 20250-9410; (2) fax: (202) 690-7442; or (3) email: program.intake@usda.gov.

USDA is an equal opportunity provider, employer, and lender.

District of Columbia Human Rights Act

Also, the District of Columbia Human Rights Act, approved December 13, 1977 (DC law 2-38; DC official code §2-1402.11(2006), as amended) states the following:

It shall be an unlawful discriminatory practice to do any of the following acts, wholly or partially for a discriminatory reason based upon the actual or perceived: race, color, religion, national origin, sex, age, marital status, personal appearance, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, family responsibilities, genetic information, disability, matriculation, or political affiliation of any individual. To file a complaint alleging discrimination on one of these bases, please contact the District of Columbia's Office of Human Rights at (202) 727-4559 or ohr@dc.gov.
